

TURKMENISTAN

FLAG AND STATE EMBLEM

Arch of Independence

Г.Карамянц 2005г

Copyright Ashgabat.us 2005

Copyright Ashgabat.us 2005*

Copyright Ashgabat.us 2005

Copyright Ashgabat.us 2005

PHOTO Denis LEGOURRIERE 2005

NATURE

Copyright Ashgabat.us 2005

HISTORICAL PLACES

GARASSYZ
BARY BITARAP
TÜRKMENISTANA

10 YYL

16 ýyl

TÜRKMENISTANYŇ ÝADYGÄRLIKLERI

Educational Institutions

- Turkmenistan has 21 higher educational institutions, including 5 universities, 3 academies, 12 colleges, and a musical conservatory
  - a total of 5,400 students were admitted in 2010-2011
- 1,730 secondary schools with total enrollment of 931,300 students
- 831 kindergartens caring for 155,700 children
  - over the past 3 years, 40 new secondary schools and 34 kindergartens were opened
- 27 secondary vocational schools
  - in 2010, 8 new vocational schools were opened offering 54 various specialties

Education Abroad

In the 2009-2010 academic year:

- 1,575 citizens of Turkmenistan were trained in 9 countries, including Canada, South Korea, China, Russia, Turkey, Jordan, Romania, Belarus, and Malaysia
- 14,203 students individually trained in 33 countries
- Under the direction of the Government of Turkmenistan, 2,800 citizens left to study in foreign countries

Provision of Pensions

- The standard retirement age is 62 years old for men and 57 years old for women
- Legislation also provides early retirement to:
  - women who gave birth to and raised:
    - 3 children – at age of 56
    - 4 children – at age of 55
    - 5 or more children, or raised a disabled child – age of 54
  - military men and women – at age of 52 and 48 respectively
  - air crew men and women – at age of 50 and 48 respectively
- The pension is guaranteed irrespective of the employment status