

Amy Barnett

Amy Barnett is the Program Director of Global Events and Hosting in the UVU Office of Global Engagement. She directs all aspects of hosting international dignitaries to campus and Utah, including ambassadors to the UN and delegations from foreign governments. Her role also includes organizing global events such as the Utah Diplomatic Conference for International Trade Relations, Global Spotlight and various United Nations affiliated events on campus. Many of these events are done in partnership with UVU clubs such as Utah International Mountain Forum (UIMF), colleges and departments, the Utah State Legislature, Utah Council for Citizens Diplomacy and local non-governmental organization.

Amy is a passionate traveler and loves to share her insights and experiences of favorite places abroad. She uses her creativity to enhance international hosting events at UVU and to contribute to enriching her work environment.
