

Dallas Karren

Dallas Karren is a junior Political Science student at UVU with an emphasis in Public Law and Political Philosophy, and minors in Constitutional Studies and Spanish Professional Translating and Interpreting. He aspires to attend law school and earn his Juris Doctorate degree; and particularly enjoys constitutional law. During two years of religious service in Colombia from 2016-2018, Dallas has become familiarized with the mountainous populations and cultures surrounding the cities of Bogotá and Bucaramanga; and is interested in Latin American affairs. As a Utah native, he has grown up around the Rocky Mountains and understands their vital importance. Dallas is currently the Vice-President of the UIMF and promoted advocacy efforts as the Editor-in-Chief for the 2020 volume of the Youth and the Mountains student journal.
