

Workshop for Utah High-School Students on Gender Issues

Poster of the Workshop (left) and sample of the Certificate of participation (right) for Utah High-School students on Gender Issues

WINNERS OF THE WORKSHOP

Shelby Jorgensen, a junior at the Utah County Academy of Sciences (left), who won first prize ($500) for her essay “Women’s Education in Mountainous Regions” with Dr. Keith Snedegar, Utah Valley University, Chair of the Organizing Committee of the workshop

Katie Pontsler from Copper Hills High (left) (a) and Ivan Delgadillo from the Utah County Academy of Sciences (right) (b) as a winners of the second ($250) and third ($150) places of the contest, respectively.

Other winners of the contest: fourth place - Andrew Wensler (right) (a) and Kaitlyn-Nicole Burtenshaw (right) (b) with co-organizer of the Conference Dr. Baktybek Abdrisaev, Utah Valley University (left), fifth place - Linsey Wilkey (c), sixth place - Desirae Cruse (second left) and Alexandra Westbrook (right) (d) with Connie Lamb, Brigham Young University (first left) and Dr. Keith Snedegar, Utah Valley University (second right), Deputy Chair and Chair of the Organizing Committee of the workshop, respectively

SPECIAL RECOGNITION FOR TEACHER

Robin Bucaria, teacher from Copper Hills High School in Salt Lake City, is awarded Certificate of excellence by Dr. Keith Snedegar, Utah Valley University, Chair of the Organizing Committee of the workshop for stimulating thirty students to participate at the workshop

VIPs AT WORKSHOP

a)

b)

Ambassador of Macedonia to the U.S., H.E. Zoran Jolevski (left), and Ambassador of Nepal to the U.N., H.E. Madhu Raman Acharya during the workshop (right) (a); Coordinator of the Mountain Partnership Dr. Douglas McGuire (left) and Orem City Mayor Jerry Washburn (right) greet each other (b).

General Audience